Did you get The Speaker this week? Here are some of the stories in our November 16, 2016 edition...

- Cloudy skies, strong winds reportedly gusting at 50 kilometres an hour, and temperatures hovering around zero with wind chills about minus seven degrees colder, were the backdrop at cenotaphs during Remembrance Day services across the district.
- Two different scenarios have been presented as the trial begins of the man charged with the death of Christopher Parsons.
- The city is taking over responsibility for signing agreements that offer financial incentives to new doctors coming to Temiskaming Shores.
- The Christmas season is barreling down the track to its first destination in the district this year—the good old town of Englehart.

- Do you know an outstanding youth between the ages of 6-17 who is performing worthwhile community service? Why not nominate them for the OCNA Junior Citizens of the Year Award 2016?
- The New Liskeard Cubs came close to grounding the Flyers on Friday.
- The Mike’s One Stop Bantam C Girls Puckhounds were in North Bay November 4-6 to compete in the Canadore North Bay Ice Boltz tournament.
- Our C-front this week features photos on the Remembrance Day services held across the south Temiskaming district.

Join the majority and read Temiskaming’s Paper of Record, the national and provincial award-winning Temiskaming Speaker. A paper produced in Temiskaming by Temiskaming residents for Temiskaming residents.
