The Cobalt-Haileybury Curling Club (CHCC) is planning a two-person event to close off the season. The format will mirror the Olympic mixed curling format, except that there is no set makeup for teams - two guys, two gals, or one of each - and there won't be a clock for the games. The CHCC is hoping for 24 teams to participate in this end-of-season curling event on April 7. Check out the club's Facebook page at Cobalt-Haileybury Curling Club for more details.

BOWLING FUNDRAISER

Local bowlers Felicity Eckensviller, Katherine Walker and Richard Nichol will be attending national championships later this month and in May. To help defray some of the costs, there will be a spaghetti dinner and silent auction fundraiser Saturday, April 7, at the Salvation Army Church in New Liskeard. The silent auction and bake sale starts at 2 p.m. and the supper runs from 4 until 7 p.m. The cost is $10 for adults, 12 and under dine for $5.

Wedding PLANNER & GUIDE

Five tips for finding the perfect wedding dress

As the bride, you will be the focus of everyone's attention on your big day, including all the guests as well as your beloved, of course. But in order to be the most beautiful woman in the room, the star of the celebrations must choose her dress carefully. Here are a few tips to help you.

1. Think before you shop. It's exhausting trying on dozens of dresses at random in the hopes of finding the perfect one. Before going shopping, be sure to browse some magazines and search the Internet to narrow down the styles you prefer.

2. Shop well in advance. Most people get married in the summer, so dressmakers' agendas soon fill up and the prettiest dresses fly off the racks quickly. Make sure you plan enough time for the fittings.

3. Choose carefully who you shop with. Don't shop with a crowd of friends who will confuse you with all their comments and diverging opinions. Choose one or two people who know you well and who have good taste. You'll want them to be able to give you some honest feedback.

4. Choose a dress that you like. Your dress should make you feel good and allow you to be yourself. You also want to be comfortable walking up the aisle and dancing. Naturally, you'll also want to choose a model that flatters your figure.

5. Bear in mind the general atmosphere. Your outfit should harmonize with the wedding theme and the reception hall. For instance, a formal sequined dress is not really appropriate for a country setting.

One last tip: decide how much you want to spend on your dress before you begin your search. That way you won't ruin your whole wedding budget by splurging on an expensive dress.
