END-TO-END

It was end-to-end action as the Timiskaming District Secondary School Saints Senior boys travelled to Englehart High School taking on the Spartans on December 11. The Saints' Lane Cote reaches in to defend against Spartan Braydon Hager. The Saints came out on top 66-35. (Staff photo by Sue Nielsen)

THE HORNE GRANITE REPORT

Good day, curling fans!

The Horne Granite Curling Club had seen plenty of action recently.

The excitement kicked off on the afternoon of December 18 as eight teams gathered on the ice.

Eugene Ménard and his team took on the mantle of Temagami Marine this week, facing off against Donald and team Touzin. In the end, team Temagami Marine was victorious. Peter Muraska and Denis DeGrâce met on the ice with their respective teams. This week, team Muraska waved their banner for Léveillé Monuments. The point went to Peter and team Léveillé Monuments. Peter Bowman and his team assumed the name of Algonquin Variety, facing off against Louis and team Ethier. It was another victory for Peter and team Algonquin.

Garry and team Lavigne donned the B&T Parts and Supplies name, meeting John and team Lachapelle on the ice sheets. Team B&T won out this round. It was quite the afternoon!

As the afternoon players called it a day, the evening was just beginning. Eight more teams strode onto the ice. It was quite the back and forth and turn of events between Patti McKnight's team 5th Wheel and team Revkor. After a well-played game by both camps, the point went to team 5th Wheel.

Team Northern Spray Foam played well, but came up short this go-around against Dan and team Simard. Peter Muraska and Brian Flaxey came head-to-head this evening with their respective teams. In the end, bragging rights went to Peter and team Muraska. The Algonquin Variety name seems to be quite the good luck charm, as the team won their game as well.

MIXED

The mixed league on December 19 had seen another decent turnout, as eight teams readied their brooms and sliders.

Teams Leveillé and Ménard met on the ice, the victory going to team Ménard. Team Flaxey and Plante were matched against each other. The win went to Brian and team Flaxey.

Richard McNaughton and his team came head-to-head with Allan and team Moonie. Not backing down, the victory was team McNaughton's. Finally, the fourth match between Reinhardt and Breton was well played by both teams, the day was won by Reinhardt.

Thank you to all of our readers, and to the Temiskaming Speaker, for helping us keep you up to date on all the action.

Happy Holidays to all of our curlers, volunteers, and supporters, from all of us here at the Horne Granite Curling Club.

See you in 2019!
