Former councillor nominated for corporation

By Jamie Mountain

Local Journalism Initiative Reporter

TEMAGAMI – Temagami has nominated John Kenrick to be the municipality's representative on the Temagami Local Forest Management Corporation's board of directors.

The decision was made at Temagami's regular meeting on Thursday, October 8.

Kenrick had expressed his desire to be Temagami's nominee to sit on the board through a letter and a resume, treasurer-administrator Craig Davidson noted.

Local nominees and evaluation of those nominees must be completed by late November.

"He's been involved in this process over the past seven years, as well (he) has extensive Ministry of Natural Resources and Forestry experience," Davidson said of Kenrick.

"He also has experience working on the provincial side in First Nation consultation."

Council had received a presentation from Kenrick September 17 that provided an update on the work that is being completed by the Task Force attempting to establish the corporation.

The Temagami Advisory Team is trying to create Ontario's second local forest management corporation to manage the Temagami unit and to market and sell Crown forest resources from the unit.

Local forest management corporations bring together municipal and Indigenous communities and industry to steward the sustainable harvesting and management of local forests.

The corporations hold sustainable forest licences and market, sell and enable access to a predictable and competitively priced supply of Crown forest resources.

Temagami sees financial impact of COVID-19

By Jamie Mountain
Local Journalism Initiative Reporter

TEMAGAMI – The picture is becoming clear for the municipality of Temagami when it comes to financial impacts stemming from the COVID-19 pandemic.

Council received the COVID financial report up to September 25, prepared by treasurer-administrator Craig Davidson, at the October 8 regular meeting.

Temagami received $175,600 in Safe Restart Agreement funding from the province of which it has used $57,096.57.

A reserve will be established for the additional $118,503.43 of funds in accordance with the direction given by the province.

The Safe Restart Agreement funding was provided by the province to help municipalities offset costs incurred from the impact of COVID-19.

The municipality used $7,500 of the funding to offset rental revenue loss, $943.45 went to meeting modifications, control group meetings and messaging accounted for $18,460.21, personal protective equipment and sanitizers totalled $12,221.33 and costs for wages and benefits equalled $17,971.58.

“In the wages and benefit area, this is a net total of additional costs associated with meetings and additional duties, less the amounts not paid to employees who chose to be laid off during the Provincial Emergency,” Davidson wrote in his report to council.

“Included in the costs are loss revenues, mostly from rental payments from the train station tenants but also rental fees that were refunded when the arena was shut down and membership fees not received from the Fitness Centre since it is not operating.”

Davidson said that the report of Temagami’s COVID financial costs is due to the province at the end of October, but that they had not yet provided the municipality with a template for the report.

Council will approve the design of the report, subject to amendments, once the template from the province has been received.

SECOND ROUND OF FUNDING

Some municipalities may have experienced greater financial impacts arising from COVID-19 than others and, as a result, the provincial government is offering a second phase of Safe Restart Agreement funding to those municipalities that can demonstrate that 2020 COVID-19 operating costs and pressures exceed their Phase 1 per household allocation.

Davidson said that he wasn’t aware of future costs that would qualify Temagami for phase two funding as its phase one funding needs to be exhausted first.

“Staff will continue to monitor our situation and make an application for available funding where possible,” he said.

Council agreed to direct staff to prepare for an application under phase two and prepare an application if a major COVID-19 related project is known.

Temagami Family Health Team

Submitted by Ellen Ibey

Protect Against the Flu

Getting a flu vaccine is more important than ever this year to protect yourself, your family, and your community from flu.

What is the Difference between the Flu and COVID-19?

Influenza (Flu) and COVID-19 are both contagious respiratory illnesses, but they are caused by different viruses. COVID-19 is caused by infection with a new coronavirus (called SARS-CoV-2) and flu is caused by infection with influenza viruses.

Both COVID-19 and the flu can have varying degrees of signs and symptoms, ranging from no symptoms (asymptomatic) to severe symptoms. Common symptoms that COVID-19 and flu share include:

- Fever or feeling feverish/chills
- Cough
- Shortness of breath or difficulty breathing
- Fatigue (tiredness)
- Sore throat
- Runny or stuffy nose
- Muscle pain or body aches
- Headache

Some people may have vomiting and diarrhea, though this is more common in children than adults

Because many of the symptoms of flu and COVID-19 are similar, it may be hard to tell the difference between them based on symptoms alone, and testing may be needed to help confirm a diagnosis.

Tips to Avoid Getting and Spreading the Flu and COVID-19:

- Wash your hands often
- Cover your mouth when you cough or sneeze
- Don’t touch your face
- Stay at home when you’re sick
- Wear a mask when unable to maintain a 6-foot distance from anyone outside your bubble
- Clean (and disinfect) surfaces and shared items

Flu shot clinic dates will be held in various locations throughout the District of Temiskaming – watch for further details from the Temiskaming Health Unit. The Temagami Family Health Team will be hosting drive-thru flu clinics in October. Watch for further details specific to dates and times. Appointments will be required so please call the office at (705) 569-3244 to schedule yours.

The more people vaccinated; the more people protected. Do your part. Get a flu vaccine this fall.

Former councillor nominated for corporation

They also provide employment and economic development opportunities.

ONE OF TWO

Temagami has one of the two dedicated municipal seats on the board of directors of the proposed corporation. The other seat will be filled by one of the City of Temiskaming Shores, James Township (Elk Lake), and the Town of Latchford on a rotating basis.

From the presentation it was noted that the municipality would be able to nominate an individual who it believed would be suited for the position on the board through experience and education.

It’s then up to the province to decide who the representative will be.

The board will oversee the work of the corporation, including the selection of the general manager, the development of the strategic plan, oversight of the agency’s reporting requirements and overall management of the forest.

Council had the option of reaching out through its communication channels to see if people had the set of skills they are looking for and ask for more names to be considered for the representative position, but felt that Kenrick’s experience over the last seven years in trying to get the corporation established would be valuable. Temagami Mayor Dan O’Mara commented that Kenrick had put a lot of time into trying to set up the forest corporation and going forward “having some of that knowledge would really help the corporation from a knowledge base.

“I think this would be the second (forest) management group that exists in Ontario, so I would suggest that Mr. Kenrick’s nomination would be a good one going forward. I understand that we do try and get other people involved but I think some of the history that he has will really benefit and make this corporation work in the future,” said O’Mara.

Councillor Barret Leudke seconded O’Mara’s comments, adding, “in the spirit of economic development and keeping things moving, I think I support his candidacy for this position.”

Northern College working on new long-term plan

Diane Johnston
Speaker Reporter

TEMISKAMING SHORES – And now the review begins.

More than 800 responses have been received to an online survey as Northern College drafts a new long-term strategic plan.

“We’re getting phenomenal feedback,” said Audrey Penner, the college’s president and CEO, in an interview last week.

Responses over the month-long survey period exceeded the approximately 500 the college received in its last online consultation prior to 2014, she said.

“I think in many ways COVID has helped us with that. They’re getting used to doing things online, and they’re taking advantage of the opportunity to have their voices heard.”

Penner and senior managers from the college have also approached municipal councils and organizations, both in person and through teleconferences and videoconferences.

(Her first presentation was to Temiskaming Shores council September 1.)

“The volume of data is now the big challenge,” she said. “Don’t get me wrong, it’s a great challenge to have.”

She said the comments are being reviewed to pull out emerging themes.

She anticipated a draft plan will be presented to the college’s board of governors in November. She didn’t expect that a document would be ready for presentation to the public until some time this winter, but said she may be “pleasantly surprised” by an earlier release.

The consultation period ran for a single month. It was a tight timeframe, she said, but that too may reflect the fact that COVID-19 has spurred a general acceptance that things are being done differently.

Among the facets of education that the college is taking into consideration are digital learning, trades-related programming, micro-credentialing (short, focused courses or endorsements of specific skills), and student recruitment, both domestic and internationally.

Risky actions

Don't we all wish the COVID-19 pandemic were "fake news"?

But it 's not and this newspaper has been bringing the latest fact-based news about the pandemic sourced from public health officials and health professionals to you, our valued readers, since the pandemic began.

And we will continue to do that because it is our obligation to present credible information to our readers as your trusted source of news.

It has become apparent to many living in the Temiskaming region that some people are not wearing masks while entering businesses that serve the public.

This non-mask wearing should be viewed as problematic because at any given time we could have a surge in cases in our region.

Masks are recommended as a simple barrier to help prevent respiratory droplets from travelling into the air and onto other people when a person is speaking, sneezing or coughing. This is called source control.

We have been fortunate in that the infection rates remain low around the South Temiskaming district.

Those who are flouting the public health guidelines around mask wearing are putting not only themselves at risk of infection, but also those around them.

They are also, should they become ill, placing a burden on our health care system.

The actions of the few irresponsible people are putting the many at risk.

Should stores and businesses then place signs on their doors and windows saying, "No shirt, no shoes, no mask, no service"?

Movement

Sue Nielsen

It was a strange week, but then again since the COVID-19 pandemic came along, there have been many strange weeks.

I wrote a paean to a recently deceased friend, my worries about my daughter contracting the virus in Scotland relaxed and Eddie Van Halen, the truly amazing lead guitarist of the group Van Halen, passed away.

So how to process all the information about the pandemic and life's happenings?

I put one foot in front of the other, headed outside and walked.

Normally, I would have gone to my canoe, but it was cold and rainy for several days in a row.

Not to worry, I did manage to squeeze a paddle or two in, though.

Walking allows us to experience our communities from the ground level, seeing wildlife and being close to nature while moving our bodies.

Moving our bodies during the pandemic has been seen as practical medicine for our physical and emotional mental health.

Walking isn't just exercise, it is a time for ourselves when we can think freely in the great outdoors.

And if you walk with other like-minded people, social distancing of course, it is a social good time when socializing has been at a premium.

The pandemic has been draining on my energy levels because I am sitting and scrolling in front of screens for hours and hours.

Now months into the pandemic and with winter approaching, my energy levels are waning. I wake up tired and at the end of my workday feel more exhausted than normal.

It does not help when it is dark outside at 7 o'clock.

The quarantine stressors are mentally fatiguing which then translates into physical fatigue.

Therefore, balance is the key.

There are regular walkers in my hometown and there is one woman who walks consistently 12 months of the year through rain, sleet and snow.

Her name is Debbie and she is a walking machine.

Way to go Deb.

According to Instagram, people are getting fit during the lockdown lifting weights in their home gyms and sitting on mats stretching mind body and soul with yoga.

I walk around my hometown and then go to the mat as a means of cooling down.

My body isn't as pliable as it once was but as long as my mind is pliable, I continue to see the pandemic as an opportunity to learn and grow as a person.

Death teaches us we are only on this earth for a brief period of time and we have to make the most out of each and every day.

However fit and youthful we may feel, anything can happen to us on any given day.

Might as well jump! Well at least go for a walk.

Women pilots host Gold Cup Rally at Earlton Airport

Women pilots from across Ontario and Quebec descended on the Earlton Timiskaming Regional Airport the weekend of September 18-20 as part of the Ninety Nines group of women pilots Gold Cup Rally. They toured around Earlton and were impressed with the friendliness of the people they met. (Staff photo by Sue Nielsen)

EARLTON — Women pilots from across Ontario and Quebec flew into the Earlton Timiskaming Regional Airport for a weekend event in mid-September as part of the Canadian 99s Gold Cup Rally.

A total of 11 planes and 23 visitors took part in the rally.

The Canadian 99s is a group of professional and independent female pilots. It was founded by 99 women in 1929 to provide mutual support and to advance aviation. It is the largest international organization of women pilots with upwards of 5,000 members in 40 countries.

American aviator Amelia Earhart was elected the first president in 1931.

The Gold Cup Rally is not a race but is a challenge involving aviation-related questions, ground photos, calculation of fuel consumption, spot landing and more. It requires a minimum of two people per aircraft, a pilot and co-pilot.

Participants are not limited to membership in the 99s.

“I began taking flying lessons in Grade six. My father was taking flying lessons at the time and he thought it was a good idea that I took them as well,” said pilot Kirsten Kelly.

“I’ve flown all over North America and even took my mother to Providence, Rhode Island. It’s great to get together with other women during these events. The people of Earlton have been so friendly to us.”

Despite the weather being a bit on the chilly side, the women brought their tents and camped outside at the Earlton airport.

Why did they come to Earlton?

“Well, this year being a COVID nightmare, I thought hotels would not be a great idea, from what was known back in April and that perhaps camping would enable us to have our annual Air Rally. I began phoning airports that we have not been to on our rallies, to find out if they allowed camping,” said 99s member/Air Rally organizer Susan Begg in an email interview.

AIRPORT AMENITIES

The group was searching for a facility with a sizeable runway and one that could accommodate not only a large number of aircraft but camping, too.

“Earlton Timiskaming Regional Airport permitted camping and has a huge runway. Jamie Smith, airport manager and Max, airport maintenance, went above and beyond our expectations to accommodate us. I would recommend Earlton Timiskaming Airport to every aviation organization,” said Begg.

This year marked the 20th anniversary of the Gold Cup Rallies that have a different destination each year.

The Rallies are comprised of a series of challenges and the pilots who garner the most points win a first, second or third place finish - and bragging rights.

The Gold Cup winners were Mary Norman and Akky Mansikka, with Rani Tolton and Laureen Nelson placing second. Jocelyn Lecluse and Janet Chesterfield earned a third place finish.

The 23 women pilots had spot landings at the Muskoka Airport where the rally actually began, with another stop on Manitoulin Island before landing in Earlton.

“In Earlton, our finale dinner was ordered from Dida’s Restaurant, respecting COVID rules. Dida’s delivered our orders to the airport for us. Excellent service and food.”

Begg mentioned the pilots arriving in Earlton were members of the East Canada Section 99s.

“They had a good time,” said airport manager Jamie Smith in a telephone interview.

“The pilots toured around the region, we provided a couple of buildings for their usage and they bought fuel from us which really helps us.”

During their stay at the Earl-ton airport, the pilots took a tour of the Bison du Nord farm, travelled around the Earlton countryside and enjoyed meals from locally based restaurants.

They noted the region was beautiful to fly over and view from the wide-open skies.
