Get your Smile on with annual Cookie Campaign

Sue Nielsen
 Speaker Reporter

TEMISKAMING SHORES — Tim Hortons is about to launch its inaugural Smile Cookie Campaign on Monday, November 13.

Both Tim Hortons locations in Temiskaming Shores will be participating in this new cookie campaign, which sees the proceeds from every cookie sold going to charities.

Tim Hortons general manager Andrew Trounsell says 50 per cent of the Smile Cookie Campaign sales will go to the Tim Hortons Foundation Camps and the other 50 per cent is going to the Temiskaming Salvation Army Food Bank in New Liskeard.

Tim Hortons Foundation Camps, since 1974, have supported over 315,000 youth attending seven Tims Camps.

Trounsell said the new cookie is a delicious, white chocolate chip sugar cookie infused with red and green sparkles and adorned with a white-chocolate icing that features a hand-decorated smile.

They cost $1.50 each and can be pre-ordered in advance with at least a 24-hour notice given.

A blow to the North

"Fighting for justice is like washing, if you don't do it you stink."
(Attributed to Maude Barlow)

The news last week that the Thornloe Cheese Factory has closed its doors after 75 years of operation came as a shock to most people in this region.

The Thornloe Cheese brand has been a point of pride for people of this region and for the workers at the factory for a good many years.

The closure means a loss of jobs and the economic spin off to the region will be substantial.

In an interview with The Temiskaming Speaker, Timiskaming-Cochrane MPP John Vanthof said, "We're not going to let this go without a fight."

And that is exactly what needs to occur for any major decision like that affecting jobs and the economy of this region and the North in general.

News also came last week that the Scotiabank in Temagami is closing its doors leaving that community without a financial institution.

Emotions are running high as people are expressing their disgust at both those decisions.

But emotions aren't going to help solve the problems of those closures.

Calm, cool heads coming together to think through solutions to these problems is what is needed now.

As a former dairy farmer, and agriculture critic for the New Democratic Party, John Vanthof has been there throughout the change in ownership of the Thornloe Cheese Factory from Parmalat to Gay Lea Foods four years ago.

These closures speak to the bigger issue of how large corporations view the people living in the North and how easily they feel they can potentially take things away.

The people of the North have shown time and time again they are fighters and they don't just spit and moan on social media, they unite, they form committees and they organize and come together for the greater good.

Peace

Sue Nielsen

“And the men who hold high places, must be the ones who start to mold a new reality, closer to the heart.”

Rush

As we approach Remembrance Day on Saturday, November 11, isn't it ironic that the world has been thrown into yet another major conflict with the war between Israel and Hamas.

Canadians are now divided over this war with some people supporting the Israelis while others march for the Palestinians.

Neither side is wrong, we need a ceasefire and we need it now.

Now might be a good time to ponder what peace really means.

It is disturbing to believe that countries from around the world may be drawn into this Middle East war in the holy land.

It is concerning to think that the United States and/or Canada could be involved in an all-out war if things don't settle down soon.

There have been Canadian and U.S. citizens killed in this conflict.

And as we count down the days until Remembrance Day in our region, let us think about the futility of war and wish for peace on all fronts.

Let us remember that our Canadian soldiers fought and died defending freedom against Hitler and his Nazi army.

The Jewish experience at the hands of the Nazi army must never be repeated again anywhere on the planet.

There are six million reasons for that.

Let us seek peace as people who exemplify reasonable thought and behavior.

This would be a way to honour the lives of those Canadian men and women who fought so valiantly for our present day freedoms.

And let us stop raging war against each other on social media platforms, in homes, schools, churches, at council tables and elsewhere.

When we exhibit rage at this, that, and every other thing that comes into our world, we are exemplifying the same hostility found around the world.

We have our own battles to fight against like homelessness, poverty, the opioid crisis, an epidemic of domestic violence and food insecurity.

Moments of crisis will come and go and yet we are all shaped by them in some form or another.

Let's have each other's backs like our veterans did all those years ago.

Let's work together to problem solve as we have done so well in this region and in our country from coast to coast.

We surely should turn away from leaders, the men and women who preach revenge, hatred and violence and gravitate to the ones who talk about civility, rational thought and peaceful coexistence.

I wish love and peace for all innocent children, all women and men caught in the storm of war.

November is Lung Cancer Awareness Month!

In Canada, lung cancer is the leading cause of cancer death in men and women. It is mostly caused by smoking and prevention efforts have largely focused on tobacco control.

What raises your risk of getting lung cancer?

Although anyone can get lung cancer, many factors can raise your risk. If you have any of these risk factors, speak with your health care provider about lung cancer screening:

- Using tobacco, such as smoking cigarettes, cigars, or marijuana.
- Being around smoke from another person smoking cigarettes, cigars or marijuana – also called secondhand exposure
- Living or working in a building that contains radon
- Having a job where you are exposed to cancer-causing chemicals
- Having a family history, such as a parent, brother, sister, son or daughter
- Having a history of lung disease such as COPD, chronic bronchitis and emphysema, or pulmonary fibrosis with lung tissue scarring

Did you know:

- Based on highlights from the Occupational Disease Surveillance System (ODSS) in Ontario, workers employed in construction, transport equipment operating (e.g., truck drivers) and mining occupations have a higher risk of lung cancer than workers in other occupations.

Approximately 15% of lung cancers diagnosed in Canada each year are caused by exposure to known lung carcinogens in the workplace. Exposure to asbestos, crystalline silica, diesel engine exhaust, and metal fumes (i.e., chromium and nickel compounds in welding) are primarily responsible for occupational cases of lung cancer.

Efforts to reduce workplace exposures along with improved screening and prevention efforts in clinical settings can help reduce the burden of lung cancer for workers in hazardous industries.

Speak with your health care provider about your risk of lung cancer, what you can do to lower your risk and whether you should have lung cancer screening.

Lori (Girard) Blair

December 13, 1970 – November 6, 2023

Lori Blair passed away at the Temiskaming Hospital on November 6, 2023, at the age of 52 surrounded by the love of her family.

She is survived by the love of her life, Chris Blair, and her children, whom she adored, James and Amber Blair.

Lori was born and raised in Sturgeon Falls to Andre Girard and the late Faye Girard. She was immensely loved by her siblings the late Lynda Smits (Dave), John Girard (Lise), and David Girard. She will be deeply missed by her mother-in-law Lorraine Blair (late Gerald Blair) and brother-in-law David Blair (Gabi). She was the much-loved aunt of Sara Chusroskie (Derrick), Steven Smits (Taylor), Ashley Girard, Cameron Blair, Morgan Blair and doting great-aunt to Clark Chusroskie and Leo Smits. Lori enjoyed and cherished many happy memories with a large group of aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Lori's calling in life was as an educator, where she taught French immersion, Core French and Grade 2, at ECCS (English Central Catholic School) in New Liskeard. She also taught in Corbeil and Oshawa. Her classroom was one of her favourite places to be, and her high-energy lessons and songs are sure to be remembered by all of her past students and colleagues.

Lori developed an incredibly strong group of friends over the years who she leaned on in her final days. Lori and her family are eternally grateful for all of the effort, love and support.

Lori was a bright light in the lives of so many. She was unapologetically her and loved ferociously. She loved nothing more than gathering with friends and family and sharing a laugh or two. She loved as big as she could, and that capacity for love will be carried on by all who experienced her love.

"Don't cry because it's over, smile because it happened." We are all better people because we had Lori in our lives, and we will spread love as enthusiastically as she did for the rest of our days.

Lori and her family would like to acknowledge the incredible care team who took excellent care of her over the last few months. Special acknowledgement to her incredible family doctor Dr. Corbeil for her care, empathy, and friendship.

In lieu of flowers, donations to Temiskaming Hospital Foundation Hospice Palliative Care Suite or to the Temiskaming Foundation's Community Cancer Care Fund will be gratefully acknowledged as expressions of sympathy.

The family will hold a visitation at Timiskaming Funeral Cooperative - New Liskeard/Temiskaming Shores (128 Whitewood Ave West, New Liskeard) on Friday, November 10, 2023, from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. and a Memorial Mass at Our Mother of Perpetual Help Parish (81 Maple Street North, New Liskeard) on Saturday, November 11, 2023, at 11 a.m.

Donna Darlene Caruso

December 27, 1942-September 4, 2023

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the death of our beloved mother, wife, sister, aunt, great-great-aunt and friend. Donna died at home on September 4, 2023, on the weekend of the 56th anniversary of her wedding on September 3, 1966.

Predeceased by her daughter Kristine, December 1, 1989, her parents Melville and Katherine (nee Sitter) Hoskin, both of her sisters Joyce Bisbano ("Butch") and Wendy Hoskin, her aunt Sadie and uncle Jim Phyllis, brother-in-law Tony Caruso (Diane) as well as extended family members.

Donna is survived by her husband Ron Caruso, son David, brother-in-law Bob Caruso (Betty), sisters-in-law Betty Caruso and Diane Caruso and extended family members including nieces and nephews.

Donna had spent some time in her earlier years living in New Liskeard with her aunt Sadie and uncle Jim while working at the local offices of Northern Telephone. She returned to live in New Liskeard in late 1969 with her husband and new one-and-a-half-year-old son David. In May of 1970 she brought a beautiful daughter into her family. She enjoyed being a mother and making new friends.

Through the efforts of Our Mother of Perpetual Help parishioners, Donna and husband were sought after to take a "short course in Christianity," known as a "Cursillo." After a few invitations, both she and her husband attended their Cursillos where they became "Cursillistas." A few years later, Our Mother of Perpetual Help parish became involved with other local parishes in the area to bring in a "Lay Ministry Program" which would be held at Holy Name in Kirkland Lake. Whole families would attend for a weekend, once a month over a period of eight months. She and her family looked forward to each session where they could gain a deeper understanding of their faith and an active role that they might take in serving their parish. The children enjoyed making new friends while involved in the children's part of the program at Sacred Heart Elementary School.

Everyone appreciated the immense generosity of the parishioners of Holy Name as they took care of billeting us and welcoming entire families into their homes as well as feeding us. Donna was also a member of Pro-Vie Tri-Town Right To Life and showed up on many annual Life Chains as well as serving at the annual Fall Fair booth over the years.

At parish events, she always enjoyed lending a hand in the kitchen where she became close friends with other women in the parish. Donna had to face many health challenges during most of her life, yet always strove to adapt to the difficulties and carry on. Early in her married life, she and her husband were honoured to be invited to become Godparents to one of their nephews, the first born of Bob and Betty, Rob Caruso, who they watched grow up from a distance and have fond memories of visits to Rob's parents on occasions where Rob was present.

A celebration of Donna's life will be held at Our Mother of Perpetual Help Parish, 81 Maple St New Liskeard, ON, on Saturday, November 18, 2023, beginning with a funeral mass at 11 a.m. and followed by a luncheon at 12 p.m. in the church hall.

Donations in Donna's name may be made to the Temiskaming Hospital Foundation at <https://www.temiskaminghospitalfoundation.org/>

Robert Melville Jibb

It is with heavy hearts that the family announces the passing of Robert Melville Jibb on November 3, 2023, at 84 years of age at the Temiskaming Hospital with his loving family by his side.

Mel was predeceased by his parents Joe and Alice (Sherritt) Jibb. Mel's joy of sharing his knowledge and skills led him to become a teacher and principal for the Temiskaming Board of Education for over 30 years. He retired in 1995 which gave him more time to do the things he loved which included fishing, spending time at the cottage, visiting the casino, and being with family and friends.

Mel leaves behind a legacy of love, laughter, and many cherished memories that will help us during this difficult time. He was as proud of his family as we were of him.

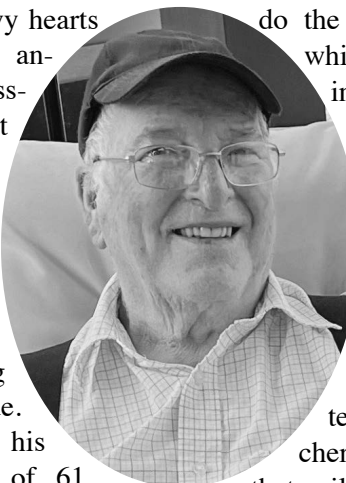

The family would like to thank Dr. Corbeil, her team, Kid, and all of the staff who helped make Mel's month-long stay at the hospital comfortable.

WE DON'T BREW OUR BEER FOR THE AWARDS.

BUT HE DOES!

Our brewmaster, Andrew Kohlen, threw away a successful career in logistics to pursue his dream of reconnecting with the brewing roots of his family. This carried him to the UK's prestigious Brewlab in Sunderland, England, where he procured the alchemy that would drive his signature brewing style.

He took what he could from there and ventured to Scotland, Cornwall, and ultimately to Krefeld, Germany, working in the same brewery that had belonged to his ancestors. He came home to Canada for Hockley.

The cookies and the smiles that go on them are all produced by volunteer power.

"We need volunteers to help make the cookies as we want to make 2,000 cookies per day. People will get training on how to make and decorate the cookies and we need six volunteers per shift," said Trounse.

"This is amazing," said Salvation Army Church Director of Community Services and Family Services Jake Moore at the launch of the New Liskeard campaign on November 7.

"Food Bank usage has gone through the roof and we are struggling to meet the demand for food. We are seeing people who have jobs coming to the food bank because they aren't making enough money to feed themselves as food prices are high."

Any individual or businesses interested in pre-ordering National Holiday Smile Cookies, or anyone wishing to volunteer, can call Samantha Carr at 705-647-3743.

Portraying the Canadian spirit through sculpting

Darlene Wroe

Local Journalism Initiative Reporter

TEMISKAMING SHORES - Across Canada and around the world, on shelves in dens, boardrooms and lobbies, there are statues of various sizes depicting people, mainly at work in occupations such as mining, forestry, and other outdoor endeavours.

There are also outdoor sculptures in Haileybury - one on the waterfront and one in the Cenotaph Park across from the courthouse.

There are even 23 large pieces representing nursery rhyme characters commissioned for the lawn of a private residence.

The sculptor, now 92, reflects that the figures sitting in businesses and homes around the world are often viewed by people who have no idea who created them.

His name is Ernie Fauvelle. He looks back on a varied and productive career that allowed him to observe many people whose faces, stances and occupations have served as fodder for the sculptures he is now known for.

"I'm finishing up a contract now for some sculptures for Manitoba and once that's done that's the end," he said.

"I'm going to retire officially."

He jokingly adds that he plans to take his computer out into the bush and shoot it.

In fact, he still may work at the occasional piece, but he has an assistant who can help fill orders.

"I've done well in my life," he said.

Local companies like Boart Longyear and Morissette Manufacturing were among his early customers for bronze sculptures.

However, he realized that he could fill large orders, in the hundreds, with a significantly reduced price, by creating molds.

The mass production of his pieces resulted in wide recognition for his sculptures. Today they are still being sold locally at Laura's Art Shoppe in Cobalt and Armstrong on Whitewood in New Liskeard.

SEIZING OPPORTUNITIES

Fauvelle lived his youth through the war years and, in the spirit of the times, he enthusiastically seized work opportunities as they came along, continuing through his teens and the remainder of his life.

Along with playing bass in the Buddy Matton Quartet, Fauvelle worked at many different jobs, moving from one business to another honing his sales and management skills. His varied work experience took him to many places, but some of his notable memories include his time with a New Liskeard men's wear business where he earned renown for his window-dressing skills.

He also worked at places like Glenn Walton Shoes, the Eplett's Ice Cream Factory, and Hill-Clark-Francis, a major building company in New Liskeard, where he was trained in management. He also looks back with satisfaction on his time in Ville-Marie where he produced an English-language radio show for CKVM.

His time in the Arctic assisting with the installation of a radar defence system also stands out in his mind.

During his youth, summers would often see him rolling logs in a forestry operation, or working at a mine site. By 1950 he had saved enough money to buy his first car.

ERNIE FAUVELLE

For 15 years Fauvelle drove truck for Diversy Chemicals, travelling across Northern Ontario and Northern Quebec. But during this time he was aware of a growing interest in sculpting.

Returning home early after one of his trips, he was aware that there was a sculpting class that evening in Cobalt. He went, was asked for the $2 fee, and was directed to the clay.

"It was just like magic," said Fauvelle.

"I got a sense of something out of the clay. It was a strange feeling, and I said, 'this is what I would like to do.'"

The instructor commended Fauvelle on the work he was doing, saying "you have some talent there."

From then on Fauvelle spent much of his spare time working on pieces of clay, sculpting and learning, becoming self-taught.

After some practice, he went to the Art Cast Foundry in Georgetown where he expanded his knowledge of sculpting.

In 1971, he constructed a building in New Liskeard to house his new business, Music and Sound Ltd., which he operated for several years. When he was becoming well known for his sculptures, he sold his business and began focusing his time solely on his art.

Then local businessman Peter Grant approached him with a request for 76 statues to present to his staff as Christmas presents.

Grant continued to place large orders with Fauvelle over the following years.

Many more businesses have contracted him since then and his sculptures have made their way around the world.

Susan Cavanagh also asked Fauvelle to create 23 bronze fairy-tale characters for her, to be placed on her lawn.

"We worked together on making these," said Fauvelle.

"It took me approximately four years."

The piece which may carry Fauvelle's fame on down through the years is Pioneer Spirit, located at the Haileybury waterfront. The large statue depicts a man and woman passing a child between them with the woman in water up to her waist. The scene is meant to reflect on that day and night of October 4, 1922, when many people fled to the shores of Lake Temiskaming and spent the night in water while most of their town, and many other communities and farms across the district, were destroyed or damaged in the fire.

The piece was commissioned by the Haileybury Heritage Museum represented by Chris Oslund at the time.

"That was a labour of love," said Fauvelle.

As he made it, he thought of his mother who was one of those who spent the night in the water as Haileybury burned.

"The water's cold in the fall," said Fauvelle.

The Town of Haileybury's centennial committee, chaired by Brian Dobbs, also contracted him to create a statue of Haileybury town father C.C. Farr. The statue is located in Cenotaph Park looking over at the Haileybury courthouse where Farr once had a home.

Fauvelle looks back on his varied career, and believes rightly that his story could fill a book.

In fact many of his stories are told through his statues, depicting the many Canadians he has met as they worked, dug and built this land.

GESTURE OF APPRECIATION

“I like kids,” said Madeline Hill of Elk Lake when asked why she’s been driving school bus for 28 years. Hill is among the 150 bus drivers, monitors, mechanics and dispatchers who work for the four school boards from Temagami to Kirkland Lake. The Temiskaming District Road Safety Coalition recognized them for their work on October 18 – School Bus Driver Appreciation Day – with thank-you gifts that included a travel mug and coffee gift card. Seen above with Hill, in the centre, are coalition members, from left, Shelley Hewett, Jean-Paul Chautrand, Julie Rivard and Skylar Picard. (Staff photo by Diane Johnston)

A PILE OF FUN

*The harvest can produce more than just food. Jack Ambeau, 4, of Timmins, was enjoying the Aidie Creek Fall Fun Days in Chamberlain Township where there were trucks, cars, scoops and other toys on a tabletop filled with grain for loading, piling, plowing and, most importantly, playing. PROTECT YOUR EYES

The sun can damage your eyes, especially the retinas, and can increase your risk of conditions like cataracts. To prevent these unfortunate — and sometimes irreversible — consequences, wear sunglasses. Opt for wrap-around styles that shade the sides of your face. The darker the lenses, the better, as long as they don't impede your vision. Choose models with 60 to 90 per cent UVA protection and 95 to 99 per cent UVB protection.

Taking a rapid antigen test? Vous passez un test antigénique rapide?

The Ontario Science Table recommends swabbing your mouth and then your nose for the best results.

These instructions may be different from the instructions found in your test kit, and we understand that it's confusing to receive differing instructions. The Ontario Science Table considers taking mouth and nose samples to be a best practice for testing for the Omicron variant.

To learn how to take your sample, see the Ontario Science Table video:

Pour savoir comment prélever votre échantillon, consultez la vidéo de La Table de consultation scientifique de l'Ontario :

La Table de consultation scientifique de l'Ontario recommande de prélever des échantillons de la bouche et de votre nez pour obtenir de meilleurs résultats.

Ces recommandations peuvent être différentes des instructions trouvées dans votre trousse de test, et nous comprenons qu'il est frustrant de recevoir des instructions différentes. La Table de consultation scientifique de l'Ontario considère le prélèvement d'échantillons de la bouche et du nez comme une pratique exemplaire pour les tests de dépistage du variant Omicron.

Fire Services

Pull the Plug on Electrical Fires

Electrical equipment is a leading cause of home fires in Ontario.

How do I keep myself and my loved ones safe?

- Avoid running cords under rugs which can damage the cord and cause a fire.
- Avoid overloading a circuit with "octopus outlets". If additional outlets or circuits are required, have them installed by a licensed electrician.
- Extension cords should be used only as a temporary connection. If permanent wiring is required, have additional outlets installed by a licensed electrician. Extension cords should not be linked together—use an extension cord that is long enough to do the job.

Install smoke and carbon monoxide alarms on every storey of your home.

Test them every month.

- Air conditioners and other heavy appliances should be plugged directly into an outlet.
- Ground fault circuit interrupters (GFCIs) should be installed in bathrooms, kitchens, and garages. GFCIs shut off an electrical circuit when it becomes a shock hazard.

- Check electrical cords for damage such as fraying or nicks. A damaged cord can expose wires and result in a potential shock or fire hazard.

For more information contact your local fire department.

Your cooperation in helping to keep streets clean and safe is appreciated.

The City will perform winter highway maintenance.

When | On or about November 1, 2023 to April 15, 2024.
