SPRING SCOOTERS

Two five-year-old Cobalt boys, Hudson Elliott (left) and Noah McCue, had their scooters out and were enjoying the warm spring weather on March 15 across from St. Patrick's Catholic Church. The spring weather was fleeting, however, as cold and snow moved into the region quickly last weekend. (Staff photo by Sue Nielsen)

Speaker Reporter

DISTRICT — It's a perfect time for giving as The Temiskaming Speaker's Community Food Bank Drive happens Saturday, March 23, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

High inflation is putting pressure on people who may be experiencing food insecurity in our region.

Now might be a good time to prepare your bag of food or write a cheque to support the food banks in the South Temiskaming region.

Serving the region are the Temagami Food Bank, located at the municipal office or public library; the Cobalt Coleman Latchford and Area Food Bank located each Wednesday at St. James Anglican Church in Cobalt; the Haileybury Food Bank at 500 Broadway Street; the Salvation Army Food Bank in New Liskeard; and in Englehart at the 63 5th Avenue Food Bank.

Food and monetary donations can also be dropped off at your local grocery store or at The Speaker office Monday through Friday, between 8:30 and 5 p.m.

If you can't get to the food bank with your donation call Lois Perry at 705-647-6791 ext. 224 for pick up or drop off.

In Latchford at the Latchford Medical Centre Monday to Friday and in Coleman Township at the Municipal Office weekdays between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m.

In Cobalt food items can be donated at the St. James Anglican Church each Wednesday when food bank volunteers hand out vouchers.

New online tool available to register to vote

DISTRICT (Special) - Elections Ontario has launched Register to Vote, a new online voter registration tool for local and provincial elections in Ontario.

While Elections Ontario continues to be responsible for administering provincial elections in Ontario, it has expanded its mandate to include the management of voter information for local elections.

Local elections remain the responsibility of local electoral bodies and include elections for municipal council members, district social services administration board members, and school board trustees.

Voters across the province can now register once for local and provincial elections, all in one place. By visiting RegisterToVoteON.ca, voters can confirm, update or add their information to the Register.

QUICK FACTS

- Effective January 1, 2024, Elections Ontario became responsible for managing voter information for local elections.

- The Register is a database of individuals eligible to vote in provincial and local elections in Ontario.

- Elections Ontario is responsible for maintaining the information stored on the Register on an ongoing basis through data-sharing agreements with federal, provincial, and municipal sources and through updates made directly by electors.

“With RegisterToVoteON.ca, we’re making it easier and more convenient for Ontarians to sign up to vote in local and provincial elections. We’re thrilled to be working with our local partners by providing them with the most up-to-date voters lists to support their elections,” said Greg Essensa, Chief Electoral Officer of Ontario.

Elections Ontario is the non-partisan agency responsible for administering provincial elections, by-elections and referenda. For more information, visit elections.on.ca.

March is Colorectal

Cancer Awareness Month

Colorectal cancer (CRC) is the second most common cause of cancer deaths in Canadian men and women. Colorectal cancer incidence and mortality rates in Ontario are among the highest in the world.

Early Warning Signs:

If you notice any of the following, be sure to inform your doctor as soon as possible:

- Unexplained changes in bowel habits, such as constipation or diarrhea
- Change in size/shape of stools, such as being narrower than usual
- The urge to have a bowel movement but nothing passes
- Rectal bleeding
- Blood in or on the stool, ranging from bright red to dark black
- Persistent abdominal pain/discomfort including bloating, fullness, cramps, gas pain
- Unexplained weight loss
- Weakness and fatigue
- Anemia, caused by iron deficiency

Many of these signs may also be caused by other less serious gastrointestinal conditions, such as ulcers, Crohn's disease or hemorrhoids, but they should always be discussed with your doctor to receive the correct diagnosis.

The good news is that there is now a simpler colorectal screening test!! The fecal immunochemical test (FIT). FIT replaced the fecal occult blood test (FOBT) for people at average risk of getting colorectal cancer. Average risk is defined as people ages 50 to 74 with no first-degree relative who has been diagnosed with colorectal cancer. First degree relative refers to a parent, brother or sister or a child.

FIT offers several advantages over FOBT:

- FIT is a more sensitive screening test, which means it is better at detecting colorectal cancer and pre-cancerous polyps;
- There are no medication or dietary restrictions (including anticoagulants and vitamin C);
- FIT is simple to use and helps reduce contact with stool; and
- Only one stool sample is needed compared to the previous 3 sample requirement

What do You Have to Do?

Your primary care provider will fax a requisition to LifeLabs for you when you are due for this screening test and LifeLabs will mail a FIT kit to you directly.

Once completed, it's important to either drop it off or mail it to Lifelabs within two days of collecting it. It's that easy!

Early detection is key.

EDITORIAL

An alarming trend

The escalation of drug poisoning deaths in Ontario continues to rise for the fifth consecutive year, says Addictions and Mental Health Ontario.

Those experts are predicting upwards of 3,000 fatalities annually with eight deaths per day taking place in our communities.

The opioid crisis is not at a crisis level but rather at epidemic levels.

These deaths are not just statistics, they are people, fathers, mothers, brothers, sisters, neighbours, friends, coworkers and more.

We know in Belleville, Ontario, 23 residents overdosed within a span of 48 hours, directly linked to toxic drug supplies.

We know full well our communities are being inundated with toxic drugs and that overdoses are occurring in the Temiskaming region.

We just don't know the numbers because there isn't a health agency that has provided that important data.

There are entire families in our community grieving the loss of loved ones to addiction.

There are only 24 supervised consumption sites in Ontario.

Research conducted by the Centre on Drug Policy Evaluation says a 67 per cent reduction in overdose deaths resulted in neighbourhoods with supervised consumption services.

Does the Temiskaming region need a supervised consumption site?

There aren't many of us who could say there isn't a toxic drug emergency in our communities as the deaths continue to pile up from overdoses.

Without a doubt community based treatments such as counselling, psychotherapy, case management, withdrawal support, peer support, harm reduction services and supportive affordable housing would help the situation.

Decisive action from all municipalities and health care professionals in the Temiskaming region for more addiction and mental health services should be a top priority.

For anyone struggling, please reach out to someone. Help is available at phone line 9-8-8. You are not alone!

Spring, where are you?

Sue Nielsen

Spring arrived in the north country this week. I cannot for the life of me find it though. What's with the weather these days? One day it is warm and sunny, the next day it is freezing cold and snowy. Mother nature - get it together. Last weekend I was doing some late afternoon birding and I noticed the most beautiful raspberry red-coloured bird in a poplar tree. It was a male purple finch returning to the Boreal Forest about a month ahead of time to nest and raise its young. Normally the purple finches arrive at my friend Tim's feeders sometime in mid to late April. I was tickled pink to see this bird but at the same time, I worried. I hope the purple finches, the red winged blackbirds, American robin, Merganser ducks and the grackles that I have seen coming back to the area lately have all brought their long underwear with them. Especially this week as it is cold for birds that have just flown thousands of miles from Texas, Florida and Mexico. Part of my enjoyment of birding is waiting and watching for the colourful spring arrivals with their cheery songs. While we have seen a ton of common red polls, evening grosbeaks and some pine grosbeaks at backyard feeders, it was a delight to spot the purple finches mixing in with them. The common red polls are anything but common. Those tough little birds originating from the high Arctic have been observed in temperatures of minus -65 Fahrenheit. So let's not complain about the cold weather shall we? Our mild winter has been delightful. Keep your feeders full of black oil sunflower seeds as we see more and more birds arriving during the spring migration. It is way too early for food to be found in the forests such as available pine cone seeds and insects that birds need to sustain them during cold temperatures. It was interesting to note as I drove up to Englehart last weekend for a hockey tournament that they had way more snow than the Tri-Town area. As a side note, that Englehart arena is a gem of a facility, which is a testament to the town and its fine people. I know why the ancient Egyptians worshipped the sun.

Feeling the sun's brief warmth on my face again sure does perk oneself up and going coatless is even better. So let's look for those blooming crocuses and give thanks for that big ball of burning hydrogen above our heads. Before we know it the ice will be all gone and my canoe will drift across the waters of a beautiful northern lake with birdsong as the backdrop. Have a wonderful week everyone!

Paving Puckhounds hit the road for NOHA U15

Steven Larocque
Speaker Editor

TEMISKAMING SHORES – The U15 Miller Paving Puckhounds are looking to build this weekend on an already solid season.

The team is heading to Manitoulin March 22-24 for the five-team Northern Ontario Hockey Association (NOHA) B Tournament of Champions.

“The goals to winning any NOHA title is to make sure you get to play on Sunday and to make sure that all players are fully committed for that weekend,” said coach Simon Chartrand in an email interview.

“I always like our chances going into a weekend like this. Over the years the Puckhounds usually perform well during the Tournament of Champions.”

The Pavers posted 11 wins, eight losses and five ties in league play this year.

“In tournament play we went five wins, six losses and one tie. We also played eight exhibition games going five wins and three losses. We had a good year statistically,” said the coach.

The team is “comprised mostly of first year players,” said Chartrand, with seven forwards, four defencemen and one goalie in their first season along with six second-year players.

“We were a young team,” said the coach.

“The highlights of our year were our ability to continue to persevere and our players were able to enjoy themselves and build on friendships,” he noted.

“The players were excellent to work with. They were eager to learn and to improve on their team play.”

Goaltending proved to be a strength for the Puckhounds in 2023-24.

“We had two very good goalies and our players always tried to come to the rink ready to learn and work hard,” said Chartrand.

“That is basically what a coach always wants, a hard-working team that wants to improve.”

THE SCHEDULE

The Puckhounds will see action Friday at 12:20 p.m. against the Powassan Hawks.

At 8:10 p.m. Miller faces the Iroquois Falls Eskimos.

Saturday at 10:50 a.m. the opposition will be the host Manitoulin Panthers.

Game four of the round robin is at 3:40 p.m. versus the North Bay Trappers.

Sunday’s playoffs begin at 9 a.m. with the first place team taking on the fourth.

At 10:50 a.m. numbers two and three will tangle.

The winners meet for the gold medal game at 3:40 p.m.

“We have played against most of the teams that are at the tournament. We have matched well against those teams. Everything will depend on playing as a team and working hard,” said Chartrand.

“Being on the road is always hard to do. Players are sleeping in a motel. They don’t always get the best nourishment when they are on the road so that is a challenge and not knowing the ice is another factor that can make things difficult.”

The coach appreciated all who supported Miller through this season.

“I would like to thank the players, the coaching staff, the families and our sponsor for providing us with a great year,” he said.

“It is a huge time commitment as well as financially to play rep hockey so it’s always nice to get support from everyone.”

Thank You

CRA outlines security measures to protect taxpayer info

OTTAWA (Special) – The Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) says it continues to enhance its own security measures to protect Canadians from fraud and identify theft.

In a press release issued during Fraud Prevention Month, the CRA encourages Canadians to take a few steps on their own to further protect their personal information.

The CRA uses Multi-Factor Authentication (MFA) throughout its sign-in services as a mandatory enhanced security measure.

When prompted to enrol in MFA, users can select either the telephone, third-party authenticator app or passcode grid option.

Individuals need to enter a one-time passcode to access the CRA sign-in services when they sign in. Each code is good for a single sign-in session.

To help prevent taxpayers’ online accounts from fraudulent activity, My Account users are required to have an email address on file with the CRA. Individuals without an email address on file will be prompted to provide one upon signing in.

The CRA said this security feature ensures individuals receive email notifications when important changes are made to their account, such as changes to their address or direct deposit information.

Email notifications act as an early warning for potential fraudulent activity.

Canadians who receive these notifications but have not authorized any changes should contact the CRA immediately.

To help distinguish between human users and web robots, Captcha was implemented in all CRA portals.

It requires individuals to identify specific images before being granted access to our digital services.

The CRA said there are a number of actions Canadians can take to improve their cyber safety.

To help reduce the risk of being affected by fraud and identify theft, Canadians are strongly encouraged to:

- Avoid reusing passwords for different systems and applications.
- Use unique passwords for both CRA and other online accounts and change these passwords regularly.
- Use a unique Personal Identification Number (or PIN) for your account in order to identify yourself quickly and securely.
- Monitor your online CRA account for any unsolicited changes or suspicious activity.
- Make sure your personal and business information is up to date.

If you notice unsolicited changes on your CRA account or think your information has been compromised, you should immediately report it to the CRA.

The CRA said it will take swift precautionary measures, such as:

- locking the account to prevent transactions;
- conducting in-depth reviews;
- contacting the potential impacted individuals.

BRH

The foundation wants to raise $146,000 for new and improved equipment at its Kirkland Lake and Englehart sites.

Purchases would include an automatic compression machine, which provides cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) when a patient's heart stops beating. The machine would be installed at the Kirkland Lake site because Englehart already has one.

Also on the list is the replacement of seven cardiac monitors used at both sites that alert staff to any changes in a patient's heart activity.

Also planned are purchases of two automatic emergency defibrillators (AEDs) that help restart a patient's heart when it suddenly stops beating.

In a news release, BRH noted that heart disease has been identified as the leading cause of hospitalization in Canada and the second leading cause of death after cancer.

In Temiskaming, it continued, seniors make up a larger share of the population than in Ontario as a whole – 24.7 per cent, compared to 18.5 per cent in the province.

When patients show up at BRH with heart issues, "the need for modern cardiac equipment to help stabilize and care for them is vital, whether they remain in the community or are transferred out of town," said foundation chair John Sullivan in the release.

The fundraising campaign stands at $20,137.

A dose of prevention to reduce the risk of poisoning

OTTAWA (Special) – Medications and household cleaners can be deadly.

In a news release to mark Poison Prevention Week March 17-23, Health Canada said more than 1,500 lives are lost and nearly 8,000 individuals find themselves hospitalized every year due to unintentional poisoning from everyday items.

National Poison Prevention Week runs March 17 through 23, and is dedicated to raising awareness about the widespread risks of poisonings across all age groups.

Health Canada is encouraging the public to learn about poison prevention and explore the available resources, including the national POISON-X phone line.

The toll-free line – 1-844 POISON-X (1-844-764-7669), or 1-800-463-5060 in Quebec – was launched last year.

Health Canada said the service, available 24/7, links to poison centres, which can provide immediate medical advice for suspected poisonings.

The helpline also alleviates stress on the healthcare system by reducing unnecessary visits to hospitals, clinics, and doctor's offices.

Canada's poison centres manage some 210,000 calls each year, and resolve more than 60 per cent of inquiries and incidents over the phone.

The application proposes to separate an existing residence (1969) and garage (1977) from farmland with an existing barn (1977). The proposed severed lot would be irregularly shaped, 0.74 Hectares with 89 meters of frontage on Highway 11. The lot is serviced via a private well and septic system.

The proposed retained lot would be irregularly shaped, 47.2 hectares in size, with approximately 468 metres of frontage on Highway 11, and would continue to be used as farmland.

Surrounding uses include a mix of agricultural and rural residential uses. No new buildings or structures are proposed as a result of this application.

Fire Services

Only YOU Can Prevent Cooking Fires

Cooking left unattended is a leading cause of home fires in Ontario.

How do I keep myself and my loved ones safe?

- To prevent cooking fires, you must be alert. You will not be alert if you are sleepy, have consumed alcohol, drugs or medicine that makes you drowsy.
- Always stay in the kitchen while cooking. If you must leave, turn off the stove.
- Keep anything that burns—oven mitts, cooking utensils, dish cloths, paper towels and pot holders—a safe distance from the stove.
- Keep a proper-fitting pot lid near the stove when cooking. If a pot catches fire slide the lid over the pot and turn off the stove. Do not move the pot until it has cooled completely.
- Loose-fitting clothes can come into contact with stove burners and catch fire. Wear short sleeves, tight sleeves or roll them up when cooking.

Install smoke and carbon monoxide alarms on every storey of your home.

Test them every month.

For more information contact your local fire department.

Gadget Helper | Call for Appointment

Family Story Time
The Library will be holding a few Family Storytimes this winter/spring season. You're never too old to enjoy a story being read aloud so drop into this Storytime program that is great for the whole family
Gadget Helper
Do you need some help with your tablet or device? If so, you can book a FREE Gadget Helper appointment at the library! We offer weekly 45-minute one-on-one timeslots on Thursdays. The Gadget Helper program can help patrons with topics from learning to navigate the basics of a new device to downloading ebooks and accessing online resources and even troubleshooting hardware and software issues. Call the library to book an appointment!
PFC Family Pool Passes for Loan
Thanks to a generous donation from the City of Temiskaming Shores' Recreation Department, the Library now has two family pool passes for loan! The passes can be borrowed for 7 days, and allow a family (up to 5 people) free access to the pool at the Waterfront Pool and Fitness Centre. Borrowers may take the passes two times in a 12 month period. Holds can be placed on the passes to plan ahead, but there are no renewals.
CO2 Sensor Lending Program
Curious about the air quality in your indoor spaces? The library has CO2 Sensors for loan. CO2 is a gas that is produced when people exhale. As more people remain in a room, CO2 levels increase quickly if there is not enough fresh air coming into the space. High indoor CO2 levels can cause tiredness, headaches and other symptoms, and indicate that a space is not well ventilated. High CO2 levels can also facilitate the spread of airborne infections.
