Temagami eyeing redistribution of cameras

Darlene Wroe
Local Journalism Initiative Reporter

TEMAGAMI - Temagami's new chief administrative officer is looking for permission from council to review the placement of the CCTV cameras the municipality has in its possession.

Her objective is to make the best use of the cameras, and relocate them to places where they are most needed, she explained. The municipality has 18 cameras, three of which are broken.

CAO Laala Jahanshahloo outlined that the goal of the project will be to effectively use what is available, and to ensure the cost is kept within the approved budget.

She was speaking at the municipality's August 8 council meeting.

She has been asked by council to bring back additional information so that the proposal can be reviewed again at a future meeting.

exists to post signs in areas where the cameras are located.

"I don't know if that's been done in all locations and I wanted to make sure that would be added to ensure that it is covered," she said, referring to privacy regulations.

Jahanshahloo assured that she would reach out for legal advice regarding the kind of signs needed.

There are some specific locations within the municipality where visual recordings are needed, she commented.

"We need to make sure we are protected."

She noted that it is highly recommended that the municipality have CCTV security camera coverage for its drinking water system.

"It's a very, very high recommendation," she said, adding the recommendation came from a lawyer.

She said the method of accessing the video footage and sharing it would depend on the protocol the council would put in place.

Jahanshahloo emphasized that she wants to focus on the municipality's "critical areas" for the placement of the available cameras.

Practise Self-Care

Most people are fairly healthy, but as we age, we are faced with challenges, choices and risks specifically in relation to food, alcohol, tobacco and inactive lifestyles. Unfortunately, the common result of making bad choices is obesity, physical inactivity, tobacco use, alcohol abuse and unhealthy diets. All of these things contribute to today's epidemic of heart attacks and strokes, cancers, diabetes, chronic respiratory disease and other diseases.

The good news is that it's possible to reduce your risk by adjusting your lifestyle and taking better care of yourself.

Self-Care includes:

- Knowledge & Health Literacy – the ability to get, process and understand basic health information and services needed to make the right decisions about your health.
- Mental wellbeing, self-awareness and prevention – being more aware of the present moment, including your thoughts and feelings, your body and the world around you (also known as mindfulness), can positively change the way you feel about life and how you approach challenges; In terms of prevention, know your body mass index (BMI), cholesterol level, blood pressure and participate in health screening.
- Physical Activity – Adults aged 18-64 should try to do at least 150 minutes of moderate-intensity physical activity throughout the week.
- Risk avoidance – quitting tobacco, limiting alcohol use, getting immunized, practicing safe sex and using sunscreen.
- Good Hygiene – hand washing, brushing your teeth and washing your food, e.g. fruits and vegetables
- Rational and responsible use of products and services (diagnostic testing and medication) – being aware of dangers and using as prescribed.

Is self-care hard to do? Absolutely – some elements definitely are, such as quitting smoking. Small steps in a positive direction are the best way to achieve long-lasting results.

Safe zones

This summer has been especially bad for wildfires in Western Canada. Here in this region we have been fortunate that the forest fire situation hasn't been all that threatening.

At the beginning of the spring there was the North Bay 5 fire near Cross Lake in Coleman Township, but other than that, nothing too serious has occurred since then.

However, it was scary when Temiskaming residents woke up last weekend to the smell of smoke in the air.

The Town of Jasper, Alberta, has been devastated by fires with half the town burned to the ground.

If we think about our communities and how to protect them from forest fires perhaps a proactive approach is necessary.

With higher temperatures and drought-like conditions, forest fire danger is only going to increase.

Perhaps now is the time to plan for such emergencies.

Is a broader Temiskaming Wild Fire strategy needed?

Property and people need to be protected from wildfire damage.

This would involve the removal of dead trees and brush around towns to create a safe buffer zone.

And anywhere large brush piles are present, those could be removed as well so as not to provide fuel for a potential fire.

In our region we see evidence of the pine beetle who has been hard at work decimating pine trees, thus causing a fire hazard.

Perhaps the harvesting of these trees and their removal near homes and businesses could be included in a three- to five-year strategic wild fire prevention plan?

Do the citizens in your community know what to do in case of an emergency when a fire evacuation notice goes out?

Aquatic inspiration

Sue Nielsen

The 2024 Paris Olympics are now over.

What an amazing sporting experience we witnessed for two and a half weeks this summer.

The magical city of love, architecture, food and art pulled off a spectacular summer games.

There were seven marriage proposals during the games, which reflected the aura of love felt around this mega event.

After seeing our Canadian swimmers win medal after medal, I was inspired not to clean my house, but to dive into a clean, clear Northern lake and swim my heart out.

Canadian swimmer Summer McIntosh, 17, wowed us by winning four of Canada's eight swimming medals at the Olympics - three gold and a silver.

If we think the sport of swimming isn't big in Canada, think again.

And our rowers, including the women's eight team with Kristen Siermachesky ready to row at a moment's notice, won a silver medal representing Canada.

There are so many sports that involve water here in Canada, we have that aquatic presence in spades.

Rowing, kayaking, water polo, sailing, canoeing, surfing, diving and swimming.

I admire the efforts of the local Northern Loons Swim Club, who are producing the next generation of swimmers.

And when you live in a land with thousands of lakes and rivers, learning to swim should be a mandatory skill taught in childhood.

I recently watched a child of about four go underwater for the first time.

He and his mother had quite a nice time swimming together.

When he came up after his first dive, his eyes were wide open as if he had just experienced something truly awesome.

I think we still need to experience awe, through sports, nature, books and more importantly through the eyes of a child.

As kids in Cobalt, we took swimming lessons at Bass Lake, boarding the bus every morning to stay all day at the lake with our friends.

I recall at times being fearful of swimming and going underwater when I was a kid, but after taking swimming lessons, my fear went away.

An older kid, a bully, had cannonballed me when I was just learning to go underwater and that scared the crap out of me.

But since then I have learned to swim with confidence as an adult.

Learning to swim is a critical life skill, which is the first defence against drowning.

Parents, don't force your kids to go underwater or to swim before they are ready, though.

Always hire a qualified lifeguard to teach your kids to swim or enrol them in swimming lessons.

Ontario has 250,000 lakes and at some point you are going to be near one of them.

The power of water is to be respected at all times.

Have a wonderful week everyone.

Gardens growing glowing health

ENGLEHART (Special) – Quiet outdoor nooks at Englehart and Kirkland Lake hospitals are a prescription for health and wellness.

Healing gardens have been built at the two Blanche River Health (BRH) sites.

They feature wooden planter boxes constructed and donated by students at Englehart High and Kirkland Lake District Composite School.

The planters provide “the finishing touches” to the new gardens, said John Sullivan, chair of the BRH Foundation, in a news release.

Sullivan said the gardens give patients and visitors at the two sites “an outdoor space to visit and enjoy nature.”

The foundation, which is supported by community donations, provided $20,000 for the project.

It notes that gardens are increasingly popular at hospitals because they’ve been shown to improve well-being, reduce stress and promote faster recovery.

It cites studies touting nature itself as a therapy, with benefits for the brain as well as the nervous, immune and endocrine systems.

Evidence points, it said, to positive impacts on a wide range of conditions, from depression, anxiety, and attention deficit disorder to diabetes, respiratory illnesses, migraines, obesity, and infectious, cardiovascular and musculoskeletal diseases.

The Englehart garden is located at the rear of the hospital near the in-patient units. It offers outdoor furniture and a gazebo as well as the planters.

The Kirkland Lake garden is east of the main parking lot. It features two gazebos, including a wooden structure donated by Norm Koch, as well as landscaping, outdoor furniture and the student-built planters.

Keeping summer safe outdoors

OTTAWA (Special) – There’s still lots of summery weather left to enjoy the backyard and the outdoors.

To do it safely, Health Canada has some tips.

When doing yard work, it is important to know how to safely use your power tools and equipment. You can avoid injury by properly maintaining and using these items.

- Read, understand, and follow the manufacturer’s instructions before using a power tool. Equipment should only be used for its intended purpose.

- Inspect equipment before use to make sure that it is in good working order and safety guards are in place.

- Remove rocks, sticks, toys and tools from the lawn before using power equipment.

- Before plugging in any power equipment, make sure the power switch is turned off.

- Never operate power tools with frayed cords.

- Keep children away from the mowing area and never allow them to operate or ride a lawnmower.

Always wear protective gear when using power tools, such as closed-toe shoes, workboots and safety glasses.

Hearing protection is also a must, because loud noise from power garden equipment can gradually cause permanent hearing loss and the inability to hear warning sounds.

Decorative, refillable outdoor torches are great to sit by on a warm summer night. Continued on page 7

AN ARTIST'S VIEW

Paintings by the late George Cassidy – a decorated soldier, long-time teacher in the Temiskaming Shores area, writer and historian – have been donated to the Haileybury Heritage Museum by the Hogan brothers. The works can now be shared with the community, said Angus Hogan, at far right, who grew up in Haileybury and now lives in Burlington. He donated the two larger paintings, which focus on Haileybury landmarks. His brother Brian Hogan, second from right, who lives in Hamilton, donated two smaller works depicting Devil's Rock and a view of Lake Temiskaming and Dawson's Point. They were joined on a tour of the museum by their brother Gerry Hogan, who lives in New Liskeard, and museum secretary Sarah Johnston. (Staff photo by Diane Johnston)

The Temiskaming Shores Public Library is very happy to be participating in the TD Summer Reading Club again this summer. Your child can register for our in person programs weekly here at the library but they'll also have the opportunity to participate on line from home to track their reading , play games and make new friends from across the country.

Sphero Battle Bots

Registered participants shall construct a their own battle bot and take turns against one another to determine the day's sphero battle bot champion. Using the minimum of the supplied items, participants will use their creativity to create a functioning "shell" for their sphero mini to act as their battle bot. This shell must be able to steer easily with the sphero mini without tipping over. The shell must also allow a balloon to be easily attached to the back that they must defend. The goal for each participant will be to attempt to pop your opponent's balloon before they pop yours. Last one standing wins.

Club de lecture d'ete TD Pour les seniors(8-12)

La Bibliothèque publique de Temiskaming Shores est très heureuse de participer au Club de lecture d'été TD encore une fois cet été. Votre enfant peut s'inscrire à nos programmes en personne ici à la bibliothèque, mais il aura aussi l'occasion de participer en ligne à partir de la maison pour faire le suivi de ses lectures, jouer à des jeux et se faire de nouveaux amis de partout au pays.

Fire Services

Clothes Dryer Fire Safety Tips

A leading cause of fires in the home is the lack of dryer maintenance.

Install smoke and carbon monoxide alarms on every storey of your home. Test them every month.

How do I keep myself and my loved ones safe?

When Installing...

- Have your dryer installed and serviced by a qualified technician.
- If you install your own dryer, follow the manufacturer's instructions before installing the dryer vent.

Always...

- Follow the manufacturer's instructions regarding the safe use of the dryer.
- Inspect and clean the lint screen after each load of laundry. The build-up of lint can lead to a fire. Regularly remove lint from ducts and exhaust vents.
- Regularly inspect the outdoor vent to ensure it is unobstructed.
- Turn the dryer off if you leave home or when you go to bed.
- Keep the area around the dryer clear of items that can burn.

Trailer coming for firefighters' remote access vehicle

Diane Johnston
Speaker Reporter

TEMISKAMING SHORES – A new off-road vehicle that can access remote locations for firefighting and other emergencies will soon have its own custom ride.

An enclosed trailer to transport the off-road unit will be purchased for just under $26,000.

A $20,000 donation from TC Energy's Building Strong program will cover the bulk of the cost. The balance will be raised by the Haileybury Firefighters Association.

The work by the city's volunteer firefighters in spearheading the project is "incredible," commented Councillor Ian Graydon as Temiskaming Shores council approved the purchase July 9.

The city's fire department acquired a 2023 Kubota off-road vehicle last fall.

It's based at the Haileybury fire station and is prepared to respond to wildland fires, assist with search and rescue, and support paramedics if needed to access remote locations.

The four-seat off-road vehicle, which also has room to transport equipment, has a set of tracks so it can be converted for winter use.

Donations covered its $42,000 purchase cost.

HOROSCOPE

WEEK OF
AUGUST 18 TO 24, 2024

THE LUCKIEST SIGNS THIS WEEK:
ARIES, TAURUS AND GEMINI

ARIES

If you closely examine your budget, you'll discover you can turn your dreams into reality. The funds you need to achieve one of your greatest dreams will be within your reach.

TAURUS

Although your responsibilities may seem overwhelming, your steady progress will give you confidence in your abilities. From now on, nothing will be able to stop you. You'll have the courage to act.

GEMINI

Sometimes, you must take a step back to gain clarity. At work, achieving your ambitious aspirations will require incremental progress.

CANCER

Although you're barely back from your summer holidays, you'll already start planning the next one with your friends. You'll organize a large meeting at work, bringing together the entire company.

LEO

You desire intellectual and spiritual growth. You may be contemplating a career change or taking an enriching personal journey. Don't be afraid of change! It's good for you.

VIRGO

You must take some time to reflect before making an important decision about your personal or professional future. Negotiations are necessary. You must weigh the pros and cons before finalizing anything.

LIBRA

Compromise isn't always possible, especially when there are conflicting opinions. You'll need to use your imagination to keep the peace with those around you and resolve conflicts.

SCORPIO

A few small wins will help restore your self-confidence, giving you the boost you need to move forward with a project near and dear to your heart.

SAGITTARIUS

Par ses sacrements, une alliance est établie entre Dieu et nous dans nos cœurs, comme l'annonçait le prophète Jérémie (31, 31-34) : « Je mettrai ma loi, au fond de leur être, je l'écrirai sur leur cœur. Ils seront mon peuple, je serai leur Dieu ». Tél : 705-672-3296 / Adresse : 341 Sutherland Way, Haileybury, ON

Five-year-old Gabe Guillemette and mom Hillary Cummings modelled post-colour ride wear. The New Liskeard duo took part in the August 1 event along the STATO trail that encouraged people of all ages to get moving. The event, held amid hot temperatures after a storm forced its postponement in July, was sponsored by Planet Youth Timiskaming and the Walk 'N Roll initiative. (Staff photo by Diane Johnston)

Enjoy the outdoors - without a tick

DISTRICT (Special) - You can enjoy the warm weather and outdoor activities by preventing tick bites that can cause Lyme disease and other infections like anaplasmosis.

Before your outdoor activity, you can take the following precautions to prevent tick bites:

- Wear light-coloured long-sleeved shirts and pants to spot ticks more easily;
- Tuck your shirt into your pants, and pull your socks over your pant legs;

- Use bug spray containing DEET or Icaridin on your skin and clothing (always follow the directions on the label);

• Walk on cleared paths or walkways. When you return, take time to specifically inspect these 10 areas of your body (favorite tick hiding spots):

- head and hair
- in and around the ears
- under the arms

- around the chest
- back (use a mirror or ask for help)
- waist
- belly button
- around the groin
- legs and behind the knees
- between the toes

What to look for: You may not notice a tick bite because ticks are tiny and their bites are usually painless. Feel your skin for bumps and see if there are any tiny black dots. Most people get Lyme disease after being bitten by:

- a nymph, which is about the size of a poppy seed (1.15 millimetres)
- an adult female tick, which is about the size of a sesame seed (3mm)

Found a tick? Remove it immediately to reduce the risk of infection. To do this properly, watch the Lyme disease video: How to properly remove a tick. Don't forget to also check your pets.

Lot 9, Concession 6, Storybook Road, Beauchamp Twp.

MLS# TM241595

Teeming with wildlife, this 161 acres of untouched land includes both deciduous and coniferous vegetation. With crown land bordering both the north and south and an existing building on the south west corner, it would make an excellent opportunity for a hunt camp or off-grid location.
