MERRY AND BRIGHT

Santa was busy last weekend visiting the Christmas Riverside Farmers' Market on December 13 in New Liskeard. There was no Santa-phobia for two-month-old Ophelia Jones, who will be experiencing her first Christmas this year, as she gazed up at Santa with interest and a maybe a bit of unease. ## End the violence

The world news of late is filled with violent incidents. In Australia, Jews were massacred at Bondi Beach, students at Boston University were gunned down and director/actor Rob Reiner and his wife were killed, allegedly by their own son.

These recent actions have us saying unequivocally that violence has no place in a democratic society and should be condemned by all political stripes and not exploited by anyone in the aftermath.

It is easy to say that such madness is limited to certain places of the world, but the plain truth is it isn't.

It is happening in our country and our communities. Domestic violence is near crisis levels and Indigenous women continue to be victimized at higher rates than Caucasian women.

No murder, killing or violent incident should ever be celebrated or talked about in glowing terms.

It was the President of the United States who spoke so horribly about the deaths of Rob Reiner and his wife that has the world shaking their heads in disbelief.

"He was known to have driven people CRAZY by his raging obsession of President Donald J. Trump," said Trump in a December 15 social media post.

It is unconscionable that a world leader could stoop that low to character assassinate a Hollywood legend after his death.

Civility must rule. May we be empathetic and understanding of each other's humanity.

Made with love

Sue Nielsen

Beloved Christmas treats from our childhood have a way of sticking to our memory banks, holding a lot of sweet emotions for us.

I have never boasted about my baking abilities, but I sure do when talking about my mother's skills in the kitchen.

Lena would begin her Christmas baking in late November.

She had a tried and true list of goodies she baked each year for family and friends who came to visit us over the holidays.

On her list were macaroons, gingerbread cookies, buttery short bread cookies to die for, sugar cookies, peanut butter balls, date squares and Christmas pudding.

For as long as I can remember she used the same recipes, handed down to her from her mother, my grandmother.

She would often add baking tips to her unique and beautiful handwritten recipes.

By Christmas Eve we would have dozens of cookies stored in our freezer or hidden around the house because if we found them, they were gone.

Mom also had her favourite metal cookie tins she used only for the holidays.

We still have one of two of them kicking around the house and when I see them, I am flooded with wonderful memories of our family

Christmases together.

As a child, I stood on a nearby chair watching my mother roll out the cookie dough on our old wooden cutting board.

We didn't have much when growing up, but mom sure made us feel rich with her Christmas baking.

The year my mother died she couldn't bake anymore, her hands were weakened by the strokes she had had over the years.

Her death made the loss of that family tradition even more acute.

I have searched and searched for her main recipe book, the one with her Christmas cookie recipes, and I am at a loss to locate it.

I'd give anything to open that cookbook and see her handwriting, to see the flour and grease marks on the pages that represented the love my mother gave via her baking.

After mom died, cousin Janette seems to have a magic touch with Christmas baking and she gifts us a platter of her cookies each year.

I know so many people are hurting and so many traditions have crumbled this year.

Let us remember a gesture of love during the holidays doesn't follow a recipe.

Drop some cash in the Salvation Army Christmas Kettle, give a gift to the senior down the street...

If I could have one Christmas wish I would go back and sit under the glow of the Christmas tree with my parents and thank them for everything they did for us over the years.

Sending love to anyone grieving the loss of a loved one this holiday season.

Shingles Vaccine

What is Shingles?

Also known as herpes zoster, shingles is an infection that can be very serious. The virus causes a painful skin rash with blisters on one side of the body. It can cause complications like loss of vision and debilitating nerve pain. The most common complication is long-lasting and severe pain where the shingles rash was.

Shingles cannot be passed from one person to another. However, the virus that causes shingles can be spread from a person with the shingles rash in the blister phase to another person who has never had chicken pox.

In Ontario, the vaccine is publicly funded for seniors aged 65 to 70, available through your primary care provider. While it's recommended for everyone 50+ and immunocompromised 18+, they must pay privately unless covered by insurance.

Who is at risk of getting shingles?

The risk increases as a person ages. About one in three Canadians will develop shingles in their lifetime and two out of three cases occur in people over 50 years of age. The severity and complications increase with age.

How it works?

Given in a 2-dose series, 2 to 6 months apart, the vaccine reduces the risk of getting shingles by over 90% and severe nerve pain.

If you are a patient of the Temagami, Cobalt or Latchford medical clinics and would like to schedule an appointment to have the shingles vaccine, please call (705) 569-3244 (Temagami), (705) 679-5466 (Cobalt) or (705) 676-2200 (Latchford).

Driving under the influence: effects, detection and consequences

The holiday season is in full swing, and celebrations of all kinds abound. However, amidst the merriment and festivities, it's important to remember you should never get behind the wheel if you're intoxicated. Here's what you should know.

EFFECTS

Many of the skills required for safe driving, such as sound judgment, acute concentration, impeccable co-ordination, pronounced visual acuity and quick reflexes, are impacted by drug and alcohol use. Consequently, being under the influence can result in speeding, driving off the road, swerving into oncoming traffic and dozing behind the wheel.

DETECTION

Police officers use their training as well as what they see, hear and smell to determine if a driver has drugs or alcohol in their system. Plus, they can take a breath sample to determine a motorist's blood alcohol level. Police may also issue a standardized field sobriety test (SFST), which typically requires the driver to walk in a straight line, stand and turn or stand on one leg.

CONSEQUENCES

If you're caught driving under the influence of drugs or alcohol, you could have your licence suspended following your arrest, even before being convicted.

Once convicted, the severity of your sentence will depend on your background and the circumstances surrounding your arrest. For instance, you could receive a hefty fine and jail time if you injured or killed someone.

WILL YOU
STILL BE MERRY
AFTER CHRISTMAS?

BE DRINK AWARE

...and don't drink & drive

To avoid collisions and other serious consequences of getting behind the wheel while under the influence, make sure you drive responsibly.

GET HOME SAFE

Instead of driving while impaired, do one of the following:

- Take public transit
- Call a cab
- Find a designated driver

Hog Line Report

With Angus McStone
The members and board of directors of the Haileybury Curling Club wish to extend our Season's Greetings and all the best for a safe and fun filled Christmas Holiday.

Curling draws will end for 2025 on mixed night December 18 and will resume in the new year with Afternoon Open Curling at its regular time on Tuesday, January 6.

Members are reminded of the Christmas potluck following the mixed draw on Thursday, December 18. Bring a favourite to feed at least four.

The long time off will give you an opportunity to wash up your curling equipment, clean up your broom and shoes, and dry clean your sweaters and pants.

The ice guys will be flooding over the holidays and re-conditioning the rocks. Hoping for some great curl in the new year.

Afternoon Open Curling
Afternoon Open Curling
results for December 9:

Camsell continued his winning ways chomping through a very game M. Bonney, while T. Morissette took a teeny tiny bite out of L. Olsen. Meanwhile, returning R. Caldwell set the bird trap in the final end to outlast T. Blair in a spirited affair.
Rock Star: Wick Tick Caldwell.

Results for December 11:
Curlers are reminded of the potluck coming on Tuesday, December 16. Regular curling at 1:30 p.m. and then Christmas socializing to follow. Open to afternoon curling members and guests only.

On the pebbled ice, one game was over quickly on a short end-count. L. Olsen snuck past M. Bonney, T. Blair slipped by R. Caldwell, and B. McMullan brought a C. Camsell winning streak to a screeching halt. Very unseasonal of him.
Rock Star: L. Nyman.

Men's Draw Results
Wednesday Night Men's
Draw results for December 10:

Quite the round of games this evening, with two going the distance.
Hearn chomped down on T. Eckensviller, L. Fleury took a bite out of K. Hearn, B. Culp had S. McLean on the ropes but two attempts to bury behind a long guard and freeze on the four foot fall short, B. McMullan chewed up and spit out F. Chenier, and P. Gordon put up two big bags of barbecue chips to distract a visibly unnerved S. Burnett squad and a wide open hit for a Gordon win in eight.
The trap was exquisitely Lay'd and sprung.

Mixed Draw Results

Thursday Night Mixed Draw results for December 11:

Games in isolation tonight as one game was way out near the parking lot. In that one, S. McLean put a hex on

C. Martin, P. Gordon barely squeezed by Wick Tick Cam-selloni, and down one tied with last rock and sitting one, B. Culp tries the raise to no avail and it's off to draw to the button, and in a game of inches, Culp is out by a foot.

Game Hearn.

A reminder that on Thursday, December 18, is the Christmas potluck. Bring enough for four. Charlie will be hungry.
