ELK LAKE - The Elk Lake Civic Holiday Weekend festival saw clear skies with hardly a whiff of smoke during the four-day event.

People from across the district and even the province converged on the little town to celebrate another northern summer in Elk Lake.

Organizing committee chair Janet MacDowall noted the coincidence that this was the 72nd annual celebration in Elk Lake, while North Bay 72 raged nearby.

It started to rain about 7 and cleared up at 8. The dance started at 8:30 and it was per-

"Good support of all the community. It was so nice to have people over the weekend come up to me and thank everybody for the job we're doing."

The rubber duck race held Monday was a fundraiser for a new gym at the multi-purpose building which MacDowall anticipates could be opening as early as mid-August, and which she says will be an advantage to assist with everyone's fitness. Fundraising has included Chase the Ace games.

Englehart Echoes

'Festival Flowers' soon upon us, it may not be out of order for yours truly to plagiarize himself by repeat of a 1986 column (minor changes) appearing under a "Museum Notes" by-line in the August 27, 1986 Speaker edition.

"Congratulations to Englehart and District Horticultural Society on their 62 annual Flower Show. The Society maintains another of the traditions of the pioneers - the love of beauty through the cultivation of flowers and their use for decorative purposes. Interest in flower growing didn't start of course with the Horticultural Society. It came with the pioneers. The very first settlers had some flowers around the cabin along with the first food crops produced from the land. Maybe just a few pansies by the doorstep or some phlox out by the gate, but few pioneer homes didn't have some kind of flowers to brighten an otherwise dreary grounds.

In these parts, a lot of the early settlers came from England, where flower gardens were an old tradition. The people brought their customs with them when they settled in Temiskaming and that included their love of flowers. Agricultural societies were started soon after the turn of the (20th) century. They encouraged horticulture along, with agriculture and animal husbandry. The first fall fairs had sections for flowers and prizes-for the best blooms.

Perrenials seemed to be favoured over annuals in those early days. Maybe because perrenials had a lot in common with the settlers themselves. Just give them a decent start and they'd get along year after year -without any special help. In fact some, like lupin and phlox were pretty darn hard to get rid of once they'd settled in. Annuals on the other hand needed a less primitive environment. They put on a real nice show over one season, but didn't get along very well without a lot of help and they wouldn't come back on their own.

It's nice to see a lot of the old favourites still being grown today. Like a lot of fashions, some of the old reliables are coming into favour again - being discovered by a new generation, just like log homes and home made ice cream. Some flowers familiar to the pioneers and still seen today are bachelor button, cosmos, delphinium, forget-me-not, hollyhock, larkspur, lupin, marigold, nasturtium, pansy, phlox, stocks, sweet William and zinnia.

A real symbol of the pioneer home still seen, is that great tall plant called "golden glow". Stalks over six feet high topped with flowers resembling miniature yellow sunbursts, bloom from mid-summer until well into fall.

Many a homestead where constant toil and little cash income didn't allow for much in the way of decoration, could nevertheless boast a patch of perrenial golden glow in some sheltered fence corner.

Perhaps some day a pioneer flower garden can be established at the Museum. They are seen in some of the century villages and historic restorations. They sure are a nice feature. Research by a group like the Horticultural Society would be needed to get it historically accurate. Whatever flowers it contained, it surely would have a patch of golden glow. The pioneers would appreciate that.

FARMING Roots that run deep

CORN ON THE COB IS A SUMMER MUST

Do you love going to corn roasts? Do you wait every summer for the arrival of those roadside stalls selling bags of freshly picked corn on the cob? Now, you can rejoice; corn season has finally arrived.

Corn is native to Central America and is a gluten-free grain; in fact, it is often mistakenly considered to be a vegetable. It's a source of fibre and several vitamins and minerals (phosphorus, in particular), and it's delicious seasoned with butter and salt. It can, of course, be boiled in water, but you can also cook corn on the cob in the oven, in the microwave (in plastic wrap) or on the barbecue — with or without the husks. Whichever method you prefer, just don't overcook it, or it will be mushy.

How to choose corn

Choosing good corn doesn't mean having to peel back the husks one by one. Simply select cobs with bright green husks and make sure their kernels are large and plump by applying a bit of pressure with your fingers. If you don't plan to eat it straight away, store the corn in a cool place, in the husk. Corn dries out quickly if you shuck it, but tightly wrapped in its husk, it keeps well for several days.

Although corn is delicious when eaten on the cob, kernels are great to use in a variety of recipes — think seafood chowder, vegetable soup, salad, homemade salsa and shepherd's pie. Yummy, is your mouth watering yet?

leave a fine finish, and precision engineered for years of worry-free operation and simple maintenance, all backed by an industry-leading warranty. Perfect for gardens, small-acreage farms, landscape maintenance, and food plots.

For twenty minutes the northwest section of Haileybury was swept by gale force winds that in any other hemisphere would be typhoons.

100 YEARS AGO

Taken from the New Liskeard Speaker and Temiskaming News-Letter dated August 8, 1918.

THE WOMAN VOTE

The extension of the franchise to women in Ontario will upset the calculations of the politicians in many a constituency in the next campaign. The reason is obvious: There will be as many, and in some constituencies, more women voters than men voters. This thought is suggested by the facts brought out in the campaign now in progress in North-East Toronto. At the last Provincial election in this riding there were also 21,700 voters. In the voters list to be used in the by-election new pending there will be 48,000 voters, of whom, 27,00 are women.

But the people of the Province have no need to fear that giving the franchise to women will result in injury to the Province. Not having had to study political questions in the past because of not having had votes, women as a rule do not know as much about public matters as men know, but it will not take them long to find out which is the man they ought to vote for. Many women, however, have taken a keen interest in political matters, even though they had no votes, and these will not need advice.

If prohibition had not been adopted by the Ontario Government, we know that the women of the Province would vote for prohibition candidates, but that question having been disposed of, it is more than likely that women will divide their votes as men have done in the past, except when questions affecting women are issues in the contest.

It is not likely that the women of the Province will rest contented with being accorded the right to vote. They will be sure to demand the right to sit in our Legislature and municipal councils. In a word, they will demand the right to occupy any position the electors may grant them at the polls. This will be the logical outcome of giving them votes.

In some of the states of the American Union women have for many years been elected to the local councils, and we have not heard that they have failed to acquit themselves creditably, and to the satisfaction of the electors. After the war is over,

there will be a great preponderance of women voters, and the "lords of creation" might just as well submit gracefully to the in#### evitable, and at once. SHIP CATTLE TO TEMISKAMING

Two weeks ago, and again last week, The Speaker referred to the grand opportunity offered to individuals and particularly to the Agricultural Department of the Ontario Legislature, for placing a large number of the right type of cattle in this country, owing to the fact that dry weather had forced the marketing of thousands of head of young stock in Manitoba and the West. It is positively a shame to see the vast quantities of clover going to waste in this entire District, when it could be used to such advantage at the present time, for the young stock said to be going to the butchers of the West at ridiculously low prices. We are pleased to note that the Toronto Mail and Empire is alive to the possibilities of this country for pasturage purposes, and hope the Department will lose no time in taking action. Visitors to the District this year are amazed at the growth of grain, and remark on the scarcity of cattle. Temiskaming's future is largely wrapped up in the production of dairy products. The Mail and Empire comments as follows: "Why should not the Ontario Government buy and place in Ontario unfinished cattle put on the market at Winnipeg for slaughtering because of feed shortage in the drought districts? Ontario needs such cattle, and perhaps the long haul into Northern Ontario is not too expensive. The subject should be investigated by the Department of Agriculture."

Trees fell tearing their roots with them. Power lines snapped and danced, crackling around the streets for a few minutes.

A lone sailboat moored off shore was rocked continuously by first heavy winds and then towering waves. Finally the boat went over, mast in the water and half full of water.

WALKATHON

Teenagers in Englehart want something and they set about to get it.

Twenty three of the teenagers are attempting to raise money for the installation of artificial ice in Englehart arena.

The Englehart town council told the youngsters that the council's financial support would be determined by the amount of money that they could raise through public sup-

So, on Sunday, the 23 staged a walkathon from the Crossroads at Thornloe to Englehart and in the process they generated donations totalling $100.

This money came from local businessmen and other interested, community minded people.

But that is not the end...

On August 17th they are planning a car wash to raise more money towards their project. They might just be successful.

75 YEARS AGO

Taken from The Temiskaming Speaker dated August 5, 1943.

PREACHER AND SOLDIER MEET

Tomstown Men Years Apart Have Chance Conversation In Old Scotland

A chance meeting in Scotland recently, described by one of the parties as "a happy incident," and which brought into conversation a soldier from this district now serving overseas with the Canadian forces and minister of the Scottish Episcopal Church who had conducted services in Temiskaming more than thirty-six years ago, was also the means of a series of interesting snapshots and picture postcards reaching this newspaper to link up the nineteen-forties with pioneer days in this part of Northern Ontario.

The respective parties are the Rev. John Murray Ballard; now living in East Lothian and not far from Edinburgh, and Private A.J. McLean of Tomstown, who is with the Forestry Corps. The information came to The Speaker through Private McLean, who enclosed a letter he had received from Mr. Ballard and the various pictorial records the clergyman had given him as a souvenir of his stay in Temiskaming. Private McLean explains that "I think they were taken in the year 1907," but it is probable they are perhaps a little earlier still, since one of them is a postcard sent to Mr. Ballard himself in Fort William, and postmarked at Englehart on July 12 that year. HEAT IN JULY ABOVE NORMAL

Average Temperature For Last Month Was 2 Degrees Over 49-Year Average

While the district sweltered in heat during the greater part of last month, no records were broken and the average temperature was only a little more than two degrees above the mean for July during the period since 1894, according to a summary of conditions prepared by James Reavell at the Haileybury meteorological station. The month ran an average of 67.7 degrees, the records show, compared to 65.4 over the long period and 65.3 in July of 1942.

The highest temperature of the month was an even 90 degrees. Last year's figures were 96.8 and 44 degrees, respectively. July of 1921 holds the record for a hot day, at 102 degrees, while the coolest July day came in 1904, at 35.8 degrees. The greatest range in temperature last month came on the 7th, with a variation of 33.8 degrees, while the steadiest temperature was recorded on the 21st, when the mercury showed a change of only 8.4 degrees.

OVER HUNDRED PROXIES HERE Estimated Figures For Temiskaming; Several Polling Places Changed

According to estimates that were available here yesterday rather more than one hundred proxies received from Temiskaming riding service men stationed out of Ontario were registered at the various sittings held by the revising officers in time to be polled at the general election. The estimate is only approximate, since no detailed figures were given out officially, and in the case of one community, there was not even an approximation known here.

Sittings were held at Haileybury, New Liskeard, Englehart and Larder Lake, with Fred J. Parry, Kirkland Lake lawyer, acting as revising officer at the last-named centre. While it was understood that some proxies had been brought to him for his official o.k., there was no definite information here as to the probable number. In the other centres, the total was approximately one hundred proxies.

Reports received in New Liskeard put the number of proxies in Englehart at ten, with about forty here and probably between forty-five and fifty in Haileybury. His Honor Judge G.H. Hayward sat in his chambers at Haileybury, W.R. Ramsay had charge in New Liskeard and J.A. Legris, K.C., and Acting Crown Attorney C.F. Tuer, K.C., were at Englehart. In New Liskeard, one proxy was brought in from Matachewan and another from the rural districts. Some others are believed to have been received, but not registered because of transportation difficulty in getting to any of the sittings.
