TEMISKAMING SHORES — A

Friday, October 14. Ecole publique des Navigateurs, with a student population of 140, smashed their previous fundraising record of $1,500 when they raised $2,252 for the 2016 Terry Fox Run. “We did really well and we are proud of the students,” said Terry Fox Run co-organizer/teacher Julie Larocque. Continued on 7b

Ecole Navigateurs raises funds for Terry Fox Run

"We didn't just exceed our fundraising goal, we smashed it three times over."

She helped to organize the event along with teacher Stephanie Ethier.

The funds raised each year go towards The Terry Fox Foundation for cancer research.

Students walked around a residential area near the school on October 14 escorted by a Temiskaming Detachment Ontario Provincial Police car.

Grade 2 students in Ms. Ethier's class earned themselves a pizza lunch by raising the most money per class of $498.

To motivate the students, the school awarded prizes for the highest amount raised by an individual student.

First place went to Benoit Mignault with $148, second place Justin Mignault with $98 and third to Marley Jaxson with $69.

Other unique ways to raise funds included participation from the teachers. Teachers Sonia Gosselin volunteered to dye her hair blue for $200 in pledges and teacher Lynne Roberge wore a dress, which is unique to her for $200.

Principal Jasmine Lamothe Thornton took a cream pie to the face and raised $400 for the cause.

The school's custodian, Dan Meunier, got into the spirit of the fundraising campaign when he dressed up as a woman wearing a dress, wig and makeup for a $500 pledge.

"I thought it was a fun way to help out," he said. "I should have shaved though," he said with a chuckle.

The 2016 Rural Youth Mixed Slo-Pitch League champions in the age 8-10 division was Broderie Ceric Embroidery. They defeated Wendy's Restaurant 16-9 in the final. The team was, in back from the left, Manolo Marseille, DJ Plante, Braden Forget and Taylor Boucher. In front, same order, Jenessa Matteau, Megan Dufresne, Salome Marseille, Julien Trudel, Sarah Dufresne, Riley Cardinal-Peddie and Ryan Pouliot with Danick Cote in the foreground. Absent were Kayley Vinette, Abby Little and coaches Bruno Trudel and Catherine Trudel. (Supplied photo)

CAPRICORN

What a relief, Capricorn. Instead of bemoaning what you have lost, look at what you have gained—peace of mind and more free time.

AQUARIUS

It can't be done, or so they say. Show them otherwise, Aquarius. You're quick, and you're clever, and you've got this in the bag.

PISCES

Cooler temperatures allow for more quality time outside. Start with that activity you've been longing to do for some time now, Pisces. Bring some pals.

ARIES

A truce is a step in the right direction, but it is not the end of the matter. Keep working on it, Aries. A resolution is at hand. A youngster has had it.

TAURUS

A shopping spree opens up a new avenue to explore. Opportunities beckon, Taurus. Don't miss out. A hobby breaks up the monotony at home.

GEMINI

A claim doesn't hold up, and you have no choice but to find a replacement. Look nearby, Gemini. An antique find does double duty.

CANCER

Brevity is a must. Keep it short, Cancer, and others will not only listen but act upon request. A youngster learns a lesson the hard way. Uh-oh!

LEO

Coherence sorely lacks, and a project does not have the impact hoped for. Back to the drawing board, Leo. An antique timepiece is recovered.

VIRGO

You do your homework. A friend, on the other hand, never does. They jump right in and expect you to catch them when they fall. Don't this time, Virgo.

LIBRA

What can it hurt, Libra? A lot. Consider the price others will have to pay before you proceed with your plans. A memo reduces the workload for some.

SCORPIO

Don't be alarmed, Scorpio. The global message does not necessarily apply to you. A redesign at home calms for some clever storage solutions.

SAGITTARIUS

Your brain says one thing, your heart, another. Follow that which you know is right, Sagittarius. There is no room for mistakes. A note tickles you pink.
