Did you get The Speaker this week? Here are some of the stories in our November 9, 2016 edition...

- Jury selection continues next week for the trial of a former Cobalt man charged with first degree murder in the death of Christopher Parsons.
- The council of the Municipality of Charlton and Dack will be once again discussing its decision to halve its payments to the Englehart Public Library, or withdraw completely.
- Waste removal from a former refinery in Coleman Township is expected to begin shortly.
- A seasonal favourite is returning to Englehart High School.
- Do you know an outstanding youth between the ages of 6-17 who is performing worthwhile community service, contributing to their community while living with a limitation, have performed acts of heroism, excellence in personal achievement or is a “good kid” going above and beyond for others and the community?

- Birds of a feather will flock together this coming weekend to support the Hilliardton Marsh Research and Education Centre social/silent auction fundraiser.
- Area student athletes have been keeping busy on several fronts close to home and far afield with a NEOAA gold medal thrown in for good mix.
- From the Puckhounds to provincial players, Kristen Siermachesky and Tristyn Elford are skating in even wider circles.
- Our C-front this week features a story and photos on Walter Tyerman, Temiskaming's Missing Soldier.

Join the majority and read Temiskaming's Paper of Record, the national and provincial award-winning Temiskaming Speaker. A paper produced in Temiskaming by Temiskaming residents for Temiskaming residents.

DID YOU KNOW...

"Vitrine" comes from a french word meaning a pane of glass, the term has come to mean a cabinet with glass doors, or a display case. This covers a lot of territory, as that would loosely define a curio cabinet, bookcase, and/or china cabinet.
