Eberts take two in Timmins

TIMMINS (Special) - The Ebert Welding Bantam Puckhounds travelled to Timmins on Saturday, October 21, to take on the "AA" North Stars in Abitibi-Témiscamingue Hyundai Bantam BB League play. The Welders had a successful road trip winning both ends of the double header.

EBERTS 7 NORTH STARS 0

In the first game Eberts flew out of the gate with five first period markers en route to a convincing 7-0 whitewash of the North Stars. Alex Date was flawless backing the Hounds to victory.

Offensively, Noah Miller opened the scoring with help from Bradley Taylor. Reagan Bilodeau doubled the count blasting home a point shot with Miller assisting on the play. Ben White tallied from Alex MacDonald then MacDonald sniped two straight markers to give the Hounds a 5-0 lead. The first goal was assisted by Eric Ethier and Sean McGonigal and McDonald's second an unassisted tally.

Eberts kept their foot on the gas in the middle frame with Hunter "Cheddar" Huppe going top shelf with help from Ethier and White. Nathan Stewart closed out the scoring banging home a feed from Luke Benoit.

EBERTS 5 NORTH STARS 2

McDonald opened the scoring from Benoit then Huppe potted his first of two with captain Carter Richmond assisting on the play.

The North Stars cut the lead in half with a power play marker before the end of the opening period.

Huppe restored the two-goal margin firing home a feed from MacDonald. Richmond gave the Hounds a 4-1 lead with White and Bilodeau assisting on the play.

In the final stanza White tallied from Richmond and Timmins scored late in the game but Date shut the door to record the 5–2 victory.

"The boys rested up Saturday night for a day of hard labour and team building as they cut, split and piled a trailer load of wood on Sunday," said coach Rick Bar-

"The boys learned an important life lesson regarding work ethic and team-
