EBERTS HEAD INTO CHRISTMAS AT THE TOP

TEMISKAMING (Special) - The Temiskaming Shores Ebert Welding Bantams have reached their Christmas break in dominating fashion with two victories over the Cree Nation Bears December 15 at the Don Shepherdson Memorial Arena.

The Welders remain atop the Abitibi-Témiscamingue Hyundai Bantam BB League with 16 wins, one loss and one overtime loss.

EBERTS 14 BEARS 1

Game one was an offensive explosion as the Puckhounds directed over 50 shots on net in a 14-1 victory with every player registering at least one point, showing once again the balanced scoring of the team.

Goal scorers were Matt Hill with four, Alex McDonald had the hat trick, Nolan Rosko-Fong with a pair and singles going to William Tysick, Nicolas Milhomme, Adam Shillinglaw, Francis Charland and Nathan Stewart.

EBERTS 11 BEARS 3

Game two was much of the same story as the Hounds continued their fine passing plays with an 11-3 win.

Hill led the way again for the Welders with a hat trick followed by a pair of goals to Stewart and Milhomme, lone markers went to Nick Caron, Kaelan Chief, Charland and McDonald.

The next league games are in early January as the team travels to La Sarre.

WAX ON, WAX OFF

Temiskaming Nordic Ski Club ski wax instructor, Bill Gabanni, points out the finer points of waxing during a clinic he held on opening day. He handed out a printed sheet of waxing tips. One recommendation is purchasing skis that are fitted for a person's weight and height and skiing ability. He recommended skiers who are using the classic style to consider purchasing a "skin" that fits onto the camber or middle section of the ski which eliminates grip waxing.
